Ethics in Pastoral Ministry

Designed for all church-workers (lay and ordained, full-time or part-time, including DREs, liturgists, musicians, campus ministers, detention ministers, deacons, priests, pastoral associates, etc.), this workshop will examine the moral responsibilities of the minister as a professional. Beginning with the theological foundations for ethics in ministry, and including the nature and moral duties of ministerial professions and their dynamics of power, we will address two critical boundary issues – sexuality and confidentiality – with an aim of developing a personal "code of ethics" that can serve as a guide for one's role as a pastoral minister.

Fr. Gula, a Sulpician priest, is Professor of Moral Theology at the Franciscan School of Theology in Berkeley, CA. An internationally known speaker and author, his recent books include Ethics in Pastoral Ministry, Moral Discernment, and The Good Life: Where Morality and Spirituality Converge.

Location: University Hall 1762 (Executive Conference Center), Loyola Marymount University

Cost: $50 (this workshop, RELX 845, earns 0.5 semester hours of Continuing Education Credit).

To register, see <http://extension.lmu.edu/religion> or email CRS@lmu.edu or call 310-338-2799.
